Munich. Right after the most successful season of his career to date, Bernd Wiesberger announced that he will be teeing off at the BMW International Open 2020 (24th to 28th June 2019, Golfclub München Eichenried). More top-class pros are set to follow. Tickets for the highlight of the golfing year in Germany can be ordered now, with a Christmas discount of ten percent.

Wiesberger won three tournaments on the European Tour this year, something he had never achieved before. The 34-year-old got two of the three wins – at the Scottish Open and the Italian Open – at prestigious events in the Rolex Series. Wiesberger ended the season by finishing in third place in the season rankings, the “Race to Dubai” – his best result to date.

“I always really look forward to the BMW International Open. The tournament is organised magnificently and has a special atmosphere that we as players really enjoy and which is the reason we love coming to Munich. On top of that it is close to my home country,” said the Austrian, who is currently listed in 21st place in the world rankings. “I’m looking forward to teeing off at the BMW International Open once again in June, and to large numbers of people coming to the tournament from Austria and Germany.”

Pre-sale of tickets are available as of 28th November, at www.bmw-golfsport.com/en/tickets, with a Christmas discount of ten percent on up to four admission tickets or Fairway Club tickets.
