Supervisory Board appoints Raymond Wittmann to Board of Management of BMW AG

- Responsible for Production Division as of May
- Dr Nicolas Peter: "Combines strategic thinking with operational excellence and business responsibility"

Munich. The Supervisory Board of BMW AG has appointed Dr Raymond Wittmann (47) as a new member of the Board of Management at its meeting today. He will assume responsibility for Production when Milan Nedeljkovic takes over as Chairman of the Board of Management of BMW AG at the end of the Annual General Meeting on May 13.

Raymond Wittmann has been with the BMW Group since 2015 and has been responsible for Corporate Strategy and Corporate Development since 2024. Previously, he held several management positions in various divisions, including Head of Assembly at the Munich plant, CFO of the Americas sales region, and Project Manager for the establishment of the production site in San Luis Potosí (Mexico). Raymond Wittmann holds a PhD in aerospace engineering. Before joining the BMW Group, he worked as a partner at an international strategic consultancy.

"Raymond Wittmann combines strategic thinking with operational excellence and business responsibility. With his broad, cross-divisional experience and international perspective, he has the key qualities for leading the production division," said Dr. Nicolas Peter, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of BMW AG.

"Raymond Wittmann complements the future Board of Management team led by Milan Nedeljkovic with the right strengths and skills. The Supervisory Board is
