Randstad lines up on the Nordschleife with the BMW Z4 GT3.

Munich, 14th May 2012. BMW Motorsport and Randstad, Germany's leading HR services provider, will take to the track together again during the 2012 motorsport season. As part of the long-term partnership, the Randstad logo will be visible on the BMW Z4 GT3 racing cars appearing with the support of BMW Motorsport at this weekend's 24-hour race at the Nürburgring-Nordschleife.

"You can only win the toughest endurance race in the world with a good team – and Randstad has become a valuable member of the BMW Motorsport family in recent years," said BMW Motorsport Director Jens Marquardt. "For this reason, I am delighted that we will take on the Nordschleife marathon together again this year. In the last two seasons we picked up a win and a second place in the 'Green Hell' with the BMW M3 GT. Thanks to the support of strong partners like Randstad, I am certain the BMW Z4 GT3 will also give us a good foundation, with which to add another chapter to BMW's unique success story at the Nürburgring."

With an average of about 68,000 employees and 500 branches in around 300 cities, as well as a turnover of approximately 1.96 billion Euros (2011), Randstad is the leading HR services provider in Germany. Randstad provides companies in various industries comprehensive personnel service concepts.

As well as the classic temporary work, Randstad's portfolio also includes Professionals, Search & Selection, HR Solutions and Inhouse Services divisions. Randstad has been active in Germany for over 40 years and is part of Randstad Holding nv, listed on Euronext Amsterdam.
