Latest information on the 2017 BMW International Open.

Players.

Robert Karlsson (SWE), who only yesterday was named as one of the vice captains of the European Ryder Cup team, and who won the 1997 BMW International Open, will tee off again in Munich this year. 2014 Ryder Cup winner Victor Dubuisson (FRA), 2013 BMW PGA Champion Matteo Manassero (ITA) and seven-time winner on the European Tour Thongchai Jaidee (THA) have also confirmed that they will be playing in this year's BMW International Open.

The two starting places for German amateurs at this year's tournament have been awarded to Thomas Rosenmüller (GC München Eichenried) and Max Schmitt (GC Rheinhessen).

Golf fans can look forward to watching the best field in the history of the tournament. Open champion Henrik Stenson (SWE), this year's Masters winner Sergio García (ESP) and two-time major winner Martin Kaymer (GER) will all be among the pre-tournament favourites. They will be joined by all six of the remaining Germans playing on the European Tour and major winners Ernie Els (RSA) and José María Olazábal (ESP), as well as Bernd Wiesberger (AUT), Tommy Fleetwood (ENG) and Spanish pair Pablo Larrazábal and Rafa Cabrera-Bello.
