15 BMW M235i Racings do battle at the Nürburgring – Podium for the BMW M4 GT4 in Japan.

- Thrilling Nürburgring 24 Hours in the BMW M235i Racing Cup class.
- Podium for BMW Team Studie in Blancpain GT Asia.
- Strong BMW M4 GT4 contingent in GT4 France.

Whether in the DTM, the FIA World Endurance Championship, the IMSA WeatherTech SportsCar Championship, or countless other championships: Week after week BMW teams and drivers around the world do battle for points, victories and titles. Away from the track too, members of the large BMW Motorsport family around the world are also creating headlines. The “BMW Motorsport News” allows us to regularly summarise all the action for you in a compact and informative manner. This way, you are always up to speed.

BMW M235i Racing Cup: Thrilling 24-hour race in the Eifel mountains.

The 15 starters in the BMW M235i Racing Cup class put on a great display of motorsport in changeable weather conditions at an eventful Nürburgring 24 Hours (GER). Victory went to the #256 BMW M235i Racing of Securtal Sorg Rennsport and drivers Heiko Eichenberg, Yannick Mettler (both GER), Torsten Kratz (AUT) and Tristan Viidas (EST). The #244 BMW M235i Racing run by the Hofer Racing powered by Bonk Motorsport team came home second, with Michael Schrey, Florian Naumann, Marc Ehret (all GER) and Michael Fischer (AUT) sharing the driving duties. Third place went to Norbert Fischer, Christian Konnerth, Daniel Zils (all GER) and David Griessner (AUT) in the #40 Pixum Team Adrenalin Motorsport car.

BMW M235i Racing Cup: BMW M Performance Parts as special prize for race winners.

An exclusive special prize was in store for the winners of the BMW M235i Racing Cup on the Nürburgring-Nordschleife (GER): an M Performance Drive Analyzer from BMW M Performance Parts. This prize was presented for the first time to the winners of the BMW M235i Racing Cup class – Heiko Eichenberg, Yannick Mettler, Torsten Kratz and Tristan Viidas of the Securtal Sorg Rennsport team. The special prize will also be presented at the remaining races in this season’s VLN Endurance Championship at the Nürburgring. The M Performance Drive Analyzer is an innovative tool for recording and analysing all important driving dynamics data. The system offers comprehensive, professional recording and analysis options, which can be appraised and displayed on smartphones. The Drive Analyzer determines a host of relevant information, such as various engine data, speed and peak values, current gear, accelerator and brake pedal usage, and lateral acceleration. The results can be viewed immediately after recording in the form of videos or graphical display on smartphones via the M Performance Drive Analyzer App, which is free to BMW customers.

Blancpain GT Series Asia: BMW Team Studie on the GT4 podium.

BMW Team Studie claimed another podium finish in the Blancpain GT Series Asia at the “Chang International Circuit” in Buriram (THA). Ken Urata (JPN) and Max Chen (TPE), in the #82 BMW M4 GT4, finished third in the GT4 class in Sunday’s second race. The duo had previously finished fourth to narrowly miss out on a spot on the podium in race one.

GT4 France: BMW M4 GT4 in action on the street circuit in Pau.

Races three and four of this season’s GT4 France championship took place in Pau (FRA) this weekend. BMW Team France was the best-placed BMW team in the Pro-Am category, finishing fifth on the famous street circuit with the #3 BMW M4 GT4. The #100 car, run by 3Y Technology, also finished in the top-ten in seventh place. In the second race, car #3 was the best-placed BMW, narrowly missing out on the Pro-Am podium by finishing fourth.
