Since its foundation in 1992, BMW Individual has been synonymous with the most exclusive form of sheer driving pleasure. The focus has been on superior quality and making every customer wish come true since the very beginning. And this is particularly true of BMW Individual Manufaktur; in the halls in Garching near Munich (GER), the customer becomes the designer of their own car. Interior or exterior, golden door handles or the family crest on the headrest – almost any wish can be catered for. There’s just one condition: The customised production must not violate safety standards, brand characteristics or legal obligations.

Timo Glock discovered the world of possibilities during his visit. As part of his tour he learned all about the entire process from the raw material to the finished special edition, listened to a bizarre anecdote and even helped out with the manufacturing of a car part. His conclusion: “Anything is possible. You can make any dream for your car come true with BMW. How everything is done with pure craftsmanship here was absolutely fascinating.”

The video is available on various BMW Group and BMW Motorsport channels, as well as on Timo Glock's social media platforms.
