BMW International Open: Images from Thursday morning.

Munich. Round one of the BMW International Open got underway this morning. The first group of the day included German Hurly Long. The 26-year-old from Heidelberg made a great start to the iconic tournament at Golfclub München Eichenried. He carded an opening round of 68 (-4) to head to the clubhouse tied in eighth place. New Zealand's Ryan Fox (-6) is the man currently at the top of the leaderboard. Billy Horschel (USA) finished his very first tournament round at the BMW International Open on -2 (70 shots). Below, you will find the latest images from the morning's groups.
