Munich. The first round of the 35th BMW International Open began this Thursday morning. A particular trio drew attention at the Golfclub München Eichenried: Bernhard Langer (-1), Martin Kaymer (-3), and Marcel Siem (-1) who started the tournament together in a German flight, accompanied by an enthusiastic crowd of spectators. All three played rounds under par, with Kaymer currently tied for 8th place, making him the best German in the field.

The clubhouse lead is currently shared by 2018 Masters Champion Patrick Reed (USA), and South African Casey Jarvis (RSA), both with 67 strokes (-5).
