Munich. The morning starters at the BMW International Open (2–6 July 2025, GC München Eichenried) have completed their first round. The initial clubhouse leader is Marco Penge at five under par. The Englishman made a double bogey on the 18th hole (par 5), missing out on an even better result. Overall, scores were not as low as expected prior to the tournament. Marcel Schneider is currently the best-placed German in the clubhouse at two under par. The German trio Martin Kaymer, Marcel Siem, and Nicolai von Dellingshausen, as well as Luke Donald (ENG) and Patrick Reed (USA), will tee off in the afternoon at Germany's only DP World Tour event.
