Munich. In a nail-biting finish, Michael Hollick secured the coveted title at the 37th BMW International Open with a spectacular eagle on the last hole, giving him the decisive lead over his compatriot Hennie du Plessis. The South African needed 67 strokes on Sunday on the Championship Course at Golfclub München Eichenried and triumphed with a total score of 270 strokes (18 under par). Thomas Rosenmüller (-11) finished as the best German in sole sixth place. Finn Kölle (GER, -5) was the best amateur, finishing tied for 30th place.

"Four years ago, I had already put my clubs in the cupboard and started coaching. The first year on tour is tough; you're just trying to earn your card for the next season. Now to win here is incredible. I can't wait to celebrate this title," said Hollick, who has now won his first title on the DP World Tour in his rookie season.
