

BMW Classic

BMW Motorsport. BMW R 90 S Production TT.

History

On the 8th June 1976 Hans-Otto Butenuth and Helmut Dähne went to the Isle of Man to ride in the production TT race with the /7 BMW 1000cc just before it was put into production, testing the power and proving the reliability of the machine. With the modified BMW R 90 S they both rode against the rest of the International marks and went on to win the Production TT.
