

Fact Sheet

Dates: September 3 – 9, 2012

Attendance: More than 150,000 spectators are expected to visit Crooked Stick throughout championship week.

Field: The 3rd leg of the FedExCup Playoffs featuring top 70 players competing in 72-hole stroke play. The following are expected players:

Luke Donald
Rickie Fowler
Dustin Johnson (2010 Champion)
Phil Mickelson
Justin Rose (2011 Champion)
Bubba Watson

Ernie Els
Jim Furyk
Rory McIlroy
Jeff Overton
Camilo Villegas (2008 Champion)
Tiger Woods (2009 Champion)

Charity: All proceeds fund the Evans Scholars Program, which annually provides college educations for more than 850 deserving young men and women caddies. The Evans Scholars Foundation is completely funded by individual and corporate donations and there are over 9,600 Evans Scholar Alumni. The Evans Scholars Program has been known as golf's greatest charity since its inception in 1930.

Economics: The 2012 BMW Championship projects an economic impact of more than $30 million to the central Indiana economy.

The Stick: This Pete Dye design and a perennial top 100 course has hosted 6 USGA National Championships, the 2005 Solheim Cup, and the 1991 PGA Championship won by John Daly.

Tickets: Tickets are on sale now!

Volunteers: Over 2,600 volunteers have signed up to be a part of the BMW Championship and this event would not be possible without them.

Contact:
2012 BMW Championship
1964 Burning Tree Lane | Carmel, IN 46032
Phone: (317) 218-3801
www.bmwchampionshipusa.com

BMW Championship
Crooked Stick
September 3-9, 2012

