

CITY OF CARMEL, INDIANA QUICK FACTS

- ▶ Estimated population of approximately 82,000
- ▶ Contiguous Indianapolis Metro Area of 2,000,000
- ▶ 30 minutes from Indianapolis International Airport; 15 minutes from private airport
- ▶ Within one day's drive of half the U.S. population
- ▶ 6th highest per capita income in the United States
- ▶ 63.4% of residents hold bachelor's degrees or higher
- ▶ One of the lowest overall tax environments in the State of Indiana and the United States
- ▶ CNBC voted Indianapolis/Carmel "Best Cities to Relocate to in America"
- ▶ Carmel voted #14 Best Place to Live by CNN Money Magazine
- ▶ The U.S. Conference of Mayors awarded the "Climate Protection Award" to Carmel for its environmental initiatives
- ▶ The League of American Bicyclists designated Carmel a Bicycle Friendly Community
- ▶ Carmel High School has a 96% graduation rate
- ▶ 93% of Carmel High School students attend university
- ▶ The Carmel Public Library has been ranked in the top 10 nationwide in its service population category for 10 consecutive years, according to Hennen's American Public Library Ratings
- ▶ More than 40 corporate headquarters including Delta Faucet's world headquarters, CNO national headquarters, Telemon world headquarters and Monster.com regional headquarters
- ▶ Carmel has more roundabouts than any other U.S. City
- ▶ Carmel is home to The Center for the Performing Arts which features a world class, 1,600 seat concert hall, a 500 seat multi-purpose theatre, 200 seat studio theatre and an outdoor community amphitheater
- ▶ The Michael Feinstein Great American Songbook Initiative is located in the Palladium

