228i Coupe (manual)	$33,845
228i xDrive Coupe	$35,845
M235i Coupe	$45,145
M235i xDrive Coupe	$47,145

2016 BMW 2 Series Convertible

Updates to standard equipment:

- Anti-theft Alarm system (302) is now standard on all BMW 2 Series Convertible and Coupe models.
- Sport Line content is now standard on the 228i Convertible and the 228i xDrive Convertible and Coupes. This includes:
 - Sport seats (481)
 - Black high-gloss interior trim with oxide silver matte accent (4GD)
 - Sport Line (7AC):
 - Sport kidney grille

Black high-gloss in front splitter

Chrome accent next to fog light

Black high gloss accent in rear bumper

Red stitching on the steering wheel

Sport instrument cluster

- The following content from Sport Line will not be added to standard equipment:

M Sport suspension (704) (is part of M Sport Package)

Black mirror caps (3BE)

- The Sport line features the standard 17-inch wheel.

- The content previously available within the Premium Package is not standard equipment on the M235i Convertible and the M235i xDrive Convertible as well as Coupes, excluding Dakota Leather. This includes following:
 - Universal garage-door opener (319)
 - Comfort Access keyless entry (322)
 - Auto-dimming interior and exterior mirrors (430)
 - Auto-dimming rearview mirror (431)
 - Satellite Radio with one year subscription (655)

Lines and Package Changes:

Technology Package (ZTP):

Pricing has been reduced to $1,950, a $200 decrease from model year 2015, with no change in content.

Driver Assistance Plus Package (ZDB):

- Automatic High Beams (5AC) has been added to the Driver Assistance Plus Package with no price increase.
- ZDB now requires adding ZPP and ZTP to the order, instead of requiring ZDA and ZTP as on model year 2015.

Premium Package (ZPP):

- Leather upholstery has been removed from Coupe models, the 228i Convertible and the 228i xDrive Convertible Premium Package and has a reduced price. Leather continues to be offered as a standalone option.
- Premium Package content has been added to the standard equipment on Coupe models, the M235i Convertible and the M235i xDrive Convertible, except for Leather upholstery, which is still offered as a standalone option.

M Sport Package (ZMP):

The former "M Sport Line" will now be available as "M Sport Package" on the 228i Convertible, 228i xDrive Convertible and Coupes. The content remains the same, but with a reduced price due to the added standard equipment (i.e. Sport seats, Black high-gloss interior trim).

Luxury Package (ZPL):

- The all-new Luxury Package is available on Coupes, the 228i Convertible and the 228i xDrive Convertible and adds a different exterior design with added chrome elements in place of black-high gloss associated with Sport Line. Luxury Package is only available in combination with Premium Package and Leather upholstery.
- Differences on Luxury Package include:
 - Chrome accent around fog lights, in place of black high-gloss
 - Removal of chrome accent line next to fog lights
 - Body color front splitter
 - Chrome kidney grille
 - Chrome accent along rear bumper, in place of black-high gloss
 - Chrome exhausts tips, in place of black

Changes to standalone options:

- 6NS – Enhanced USB & Bluetooth plus Smartphone Integration: The price of 6NS has been reduced to $350.

- 2A0 – The previously available 2A0 wheel (18" wheel style 385) is no longer available on Coupes, 228i Convertible and the 228i xDrive Convertible.
- 2L7 / 2L9 – Wheels 2L7 / 2L9 (18" style 384) are now available as standalone options on Coupes, the 228i Convertible and the 228i xDrive Convertible.
- 21U / 21V – Two new wheels are available for the M235i Convertible and the M235i xDrive Convertible as well as Coupes. They are the same style wheel (436M) but are offered as orbit grey, which is darker than the still available 2PG / 2TR ferric grey wheels.
- 4LC / 4FT – With the addition of Black high-gloss interior trim as standard equipment on Coupes, the 228i Convertible and the 228i xDrive Convertible, the price of Fineline Stream Wood trim (4LC) and Brushed Aluminum trim (4FT) have been reduced to $350.
- KCCX – Oyster Sensatec is now available in combination with Sport seats and therefore still available on the 228i Convertible and the 228i xDrive Convertible base car with Sport Line. This also adds a contrasting color to the interior in that the carpet and instrument panel are black.

BMW 2 Series Convertible Pricing (including $995 D&H):

228i Convertible	$39,645
228i xDrive Convertible	$41,645
M235i Convertible	$49,745
M235i xDrive Convertible	$51,745

M235i xDrive Convertible is a new model for the 2016 model year.
