RawHyde Adventures and California Superbike School – Official Training Partners of BMW Motorrad USA – Offer Riders A Chance To Win the Ultimate Fast and Dirty Experience

Enter the Fast and Dirty Sweepstakes before the deadline of June 20th

Woodcliff Lake, NJ – May 1, 2017... RawHyde Adventures and Keith Code's California Superbike School – Official Training Partners of BMW Motorrad USA – have teamed up to offer motorcyclists a coveted opportunity for unforgettable experiences in race track and adventure riding. By entering the Fast and Dirty Sweepstakes, three lucky riders can win one of three unique experiences from RawHyde and California Superbike School.

The Grand Prize is a two-day rider training program, featuring two days of learning in the dirt at the legendary RawHyde training center on a new BMW GS and two days of "track technique" with the world-renowned California Superbike School on a brand new BMW S 1000 RR. That's four full days of adrenaline on two wheels from the premier rider training academies in the industry!

The Second-place prize is a two-day experience with RawHyde, exploring the worldfamous Mojave Desert on a genuine adventure to the school's Base Camp Alpha. The winner can select a BMW GS of his/her choice for a memorable romp through gold mines, ghost towns and epic desert scenery!

The Third-place prize is a one-day on-track training program at one of any California Superbike School events nationwide. The prize includes the use of a BMW S 1000 RR and catered lunch during the class.
